

GRAIN 11, WORKSHEET n.2: Narrative creation: complete the story

Here you will find an introduction and a consequence of a story, try to find an extraordinary event that can connect them.

Then imagine what could be the reason why the students find themselves facing the same challenge as the protagonist.

The young researcher Mary K. is alone in the laboratory: she is close to completing an important experiment that will allow her to demonstrate the validity of her research ...

EXTRAORDINARY EVENT

Now Mary K. finds herself in a boiler room. She is afraid, but she also feels courage, after all, there must be some way out of here.
